Purpose of this Course

The purpose of this course is to develop an understanding of analysis and writing of tonal melody and diatonic harmony, including fundamental music concepts, scales, intervals, chords, 7th chords, early four-part writing, and analysis of small compositional forms. The student's understanding of these topics will be regularly assessed through homework assignments, quizzes, and written exams.

Course Student Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Construct and identify major scale and all forms of the minor scale.
2. Construct and identify triads and seventh chords in all inversions.
3. Analyze triads in harmonic context utilizing standard roman-numeral symbols.
4. Compose music in standard four-part chorale style.
5. Identify small musical forms.
6. Demonstrate musical concepts covered in class, including scales, triads, and basic harmonic progression on the keyboard.
7. Demonstrate an understanding of rhythmic meter and note duration through score analysis and composition.

Flex Course Format

This course will meet both face to face and virtually. All face to face classes will be live streamed and recorded. Access to these live streams/recordings will be available to all students via Blackboard Collaborate.

- Students are expected to attend classes, whether in person or online.

- If you are attending an in-person class, you are required to wear a CDC-compliant face mask that covers your mouth and nose.
- The student has the option to choose attending any class virtually, although in person attendance is highly encouraged.
- If the class size is too large, the class will be split into 2 groups so as to maintain proper social distancing per CDC guidelines. The professor will assign students to these groups.
- Group 1: will attend in person on Monday (Tuesday) and virtually on Wednesday (Thursday).
- Group 2: will attend virtually on Monday (Tuesday) and in person on Wednesday (Thursday).
- If you are ill, have been exposed to Covid-19, or are awaiting Covid-19 test results do not come to the in-person class and attend virtually instead.
- When attending class virtually, the student is expected to login to Blackboard and view course lectures in real time.
- If the student does not communicate with the professor or login to Blackboard for 3 consecutive weeks, the student risks being dropped from the course.

Grading Standards

Homework

- Written homework assignments are due by the beginning of the next class meeting after they are assigned.
- Written homework should be submitted via Blackboard. Students will need access to a printer and scanner. Uploaded pictures of written homework will be accepted ONLY if the picture is high quality and all notation is legible.
- Assignments must be completed in PENCIL.
- Any assignment submitted with unreadable manuscript will be returned to the student to be completed again and will be counted as a late assignment.
- Late assignments that are incomplete will not be accepted.
- Students will not attempt to complete due homework during class, nor will they work on assignments for other classes.
- The single lowest homework grade will be dropped when figuring the student's average at the end of the semester.

Homework Deductions

- 5 for assignments completed in PEN
- 10 for assignments submitted after the start of class or later in the day on due date
- 25 for late assignments up to a week late
- Automatic 0 for assignments not submitted within a week

Exams

- Exams will be administered online via Blackboard and will contain written and online portions.
- There will be three exams scheduled during the semester, and a comprehensive final exam at the end of the semester.
- Exams may not be taken late or early except in the case of a legitimate emergency. The instructor must be notified in advance and for which documentation is provided upon the student's return to class.
- Both written and online portions of the exam must be submitted before the exam deadline via Blackboard.
- The final exam will follow the same format of the three previous exams and will be taken at the time specified in the college finals schedule. Under no circumstances will any student be allowed to take the final exam early.

Grade Book

The course grade book is maintained at <https://southplainscollege.blackboard.com/webapps/login/>. Class assignments will also be posted to Blackboard. You are encouraged to log in regularly, to keep track of your personal records. If you have questions about using this website, please do not hesitate to ask the instructor. Tutoring is provided for this course. Please listen to announcements given in class regarding tutoring, and please do not hesitate to ask the instructor for further information.

Final Grade Calculation

The Final grade will be calculated as follows:

- Written homework assignments 30%
- Three regular exams 40%
- Final Exam 20%
- Quizzes and Class Participation 10%

The Final Grade will be determined as follows:

- 90-100% = A
- 80-89% = B
- 70-79% = C
- 60-69% = D
- 59% and under = F

For Fine Arts Music Majors

Although the grade of a “D” is considered passing, it is highly recommended that the student earns a grade of at least a “C” to show competency in the subject before moving on to the next level of Music Theory. Students who earn a “D” will be encouraged to retake the course.

Covid-19 Statement

It is the policy of South Plains College for the Fall 2020 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the student refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation.

Plagiarism and Cheating

Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, examinations, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Turning in a paper that has been purchased, borrowed, or downloaded from another student, an online term paper site, or a mail order term paper mill;
- Cutting and pasting together information from books, articles, other papers, or online sites without providing proper documentation;
- Using direct quotations (three or more words) from a source without showing them to be direct quotations and citing them; or
- Missing in-text citations.

Cheating violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Obtaining an examination by stealing or collusion;
- Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
- Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet, apps) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
- Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
- Taking an examination for another;
- Altering grade records;
- Copying another's work during an examination or on a homework assignment;
- Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
- Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Student Code of Conduct Policy

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Disability Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office.
