Textbook: Pauline Maier, Inventing America, vol II.
George Orwell, 1984

Course grades will come from examinations over the textbook chapters or from lecture materials. A student who is unable to attend class should read the relevant chapters in the textbook and prepare for an exam based on that material. The goal is to successfully complete four exams. At least six exams will be offered through the semester. One of those exams will be based on the novel 1984 by George Orwell. That exam is scheduled for May 28th and cannot be dropped (makes will be available).

Participation and attendance in lecture will not factor in grades this semester.

Students with Disabilities: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland Student Health & Wellness Center 806-716-2577, Reese Center (also covers ATC) Building 8: 806-716-4675, Plainview Center Main Office: 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611, or the Health and Wellness main number at 806-716-2529.
